While every effort has been made to ensure the quality of the information presented, the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) makes no warranty regarding the accuracy or completeness of this map.

This map and data are representative and are to be used as intended by the BLM. Map data are compiled from various sources. As a result, routes shown on non-BLM land may not be accounted for and/or depicted. This information may not meet National Map Accuracy Standards.

This map and the data from which it was derived are not binding on the BLM and may be revised at any time.

Travel routes depicted across Arizona State Trust lands do not imply legal public access to sue or cross State Trust lands. Any public use of routes on State Trust lands is strictly under the jurisdiction of the Arizona State Land Department, and all users must comply with State policies and regulations in order to legally use or traverse State Trust lands.

BLM Wilderness Areas are limited to non-motorized and non-mechanized travel only

AT YOUR OWN RISK!
The desert backcountry can be DANGEROUS!!!
Unimproved roads and trails are not maintained and are infrequently traveled.
Be prepared for rough remote country, extreme temperatures and potentially dangerous storms with flood flashing.
Road: Route designated for use by low-clearance vehicles having 4+ wheels and maintained for regular continuous use.
Primitive Road: Route designated for use by 4-wheel drive/ high clearance vehicles (two-track).
Motorized Trail: Single-track route managed for use by motorcycles and E-bikes.
Non-motorized Trail: Single-track route managed for use by human-powered and stock forms of transportation or historical or heritage values.
Users will likely encounter locked gates where shown on the map. These are passages into private land and BLM has NO control over locked access to private land.
Be Prepared:
Turn around when half of your drinking water is consumed. Carry satellite communication for emergencies. Tell a reliable person where you are going and when to expect you to return.
