

Cedar Mesa Day Use Permits

A permit is required year-round for day use in the canyons of Cedar Mesa. Day use permits are required for the following canyons and their tributaries; Grand Gulch, Slickhorn Canyon, Fish Canyon, Owl Canyon, North and South Forks of Mule Canyon, Road Canyon, and Lime Creek. Visitation of Moon House Ruin requires a separate day use permit. With the exception of Moon House Ruin, day use permits must be obtained at self-pay fee tubes placed at the following trailheads and locations, or at Kane Gulch Ranger Station during operating hours (8:00 AM to noon) in the spring and fall:

- Kane Gulch
- Government Trail
- Texas Flat Rd
- Government/Slickhorn Rd
- Lower Fish Canyon
- Bullet Canyon
- Cigarette Springs Rd
- Sheiks Canyon
- Fish/Owl Trailhead
- Todie Canyon
- Collins Canyon
- Hole in the Rock Rd off Utah Hwy 95

Payment may be made with cash or check. Fees must be placed in the envelope and dropped into the fee tube, with the tear-off receipt placed on vehicle dashboard so the permit number and dates are visible. The permit covers all occupants of that vehicle only.

Group size is limited to 12 people.
