

CHECKLIST FOR REVIEW OF RANGELAND HEALTH STANDARDS
PETER CREEK ALLOTMENT NUMBER 00100

STANDARD	First Determination (Met or Not Met)	INITIAL ASSESSMENT IS VALID? Yes or No	If "yes" List Indicators reviewed Including any new supporting data	If "No" List Indicators Used. Provide Update	Current Assessment (met or not Met)
1- Upland watershed-	Met	Yes	Soil Surface Factor(SSF), grazing management, upland trend, Ecological Site Inventory (ESI)	N/A	Not Applicable
2- Riparian/Wetland	Not Applicable	Yes	Project Records, Wetland and Riparian Inventories	N/A	Met
3-Ecological Processes	Met 75% of Allotment	Yes	ESI, Observed Apparent Trend (OAT), current vegetation compared to historic potential vegetation	N/A	Met 90%
4-Water quality Standards	Not applicable	N/A	N/A	N/A	Not Applicable
5- Biological Diversity	Met	Yes	Current wildlife inventories	N/A	Met

Team Members
Casey O'Connor
Vernon Stoffleth
James Leal
Brennan Hauk
Theresa Romasko
Todd Forbes

Title
Rangeland Management Specialist
Wildlife Biologist
Fisheries Biologist
Natural Resource Specialist
Assistant Field Manager
Assistant Field Manager

Determination

Existing grazing management practices or levels of grazing use on the Peter Creek Allotment promote achievement of significant progress towards the Oregon Standards and guidelines for Rangeland Health and conform with the Guidelines for Livestock Grazing Management.

Existing grazing management practices or levels of grazing use on the Peter Creek Allotment will require modification or change prior to the next grazing season to promote achievement of the Oregon Standards and Guidelines for Rangeland Health and conform with the Guidelines for Livestock Grazing Management

Manager, Lakeview Resource Area

7/2/12
Date